

MOSELEY HOUSE SELECTED TO HOST
“KICK OFF” FOR ZORA FESTIVAL

Last year, The Eatonville Cultural Collaborative Project (ECCP) was formed and held regularly meeting at Eatonville Town Hall. The group consists of various cultural arts and community groups from the Orlando/Eatonville areas.

After several months of meetings and planning, the Moseley House Museum was selected to be the lead organization to host a “Kick-off” session for the 125th Anniversary Celebration for the Town of Eatonville which will be a Roundtable Session entitled “Eatonville’s Story: The Town that Freedom Built”.

The session is scheduled for Saturday, January 21, 2012, 4:00 –7:30 PM at St. Lawrence AME Church, Kennedy Boulevard, Eatonville, FL. Following the Roundtable Discussion there will be a Mobile Tour of The Historic Thomas House and The Matilda Clark Moseley House Museum. The session will end with a Reception at Rollins College where visitors can view historic displays and artifacts.

All members of the blue and white family, their family and friends who can are encouraged to attend.

Recipes for Good Home Cooking
Will Circle the State this Weekend

All chapter basilei are asked to help get the word out to their chapter members that Cookbooks will be available for purchase at all Area Meetings this weekend, Jan. 21 or 22nd at the sites of the Area Meetings EXCEPT in Area V. Area V held its annual joint meeting on last weekend.

Look for a message from Soror Joyce Kerce, Area V Coordinator, detailing how and when Area V members will be able to get copies of books.

A special thanks is extended to all who help to make the Moseley House Cookbook Fundraising Project a success!
